

Human Resources Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2024 | Version 2.0

1. Purpose

This HR Policy establishes the standards and procedures governing employment at our company. It applies to all full-time, part-time, and contract employees across all departments and locations.

2. Recruitment & Hiring

All open positions must be approved by the department head and HR before posting. Job advertisements will be posted internally for a minimum of 5 business days before external posting. Interviews will be conducted by a panel of at least two people including the direct manager. Reference checks are mandatory for all final candidates. Employment offers are contingent upon successful background verification.

3. Onboarding

New employees undergo a structured 30-day onboarding program. On Day 1, employees receive equipment, system access, and a welcome kit. During Week 1, they attend mandatory orientation covering company culture, policies, and compliance. A designated buddy is assigned for the first 60 days. Probationary period is 90 days for all new hires.

4. Performance Reviews

Performance reviews are conducted bi-annually in June and December. Each employee sets SMART goals with their manager at the start of each review period. Ratings scale: Exceeds Expectations, Meets Expectations, Needs Improvement, Unsatisfactory. Employees rated 'Unsatisfactory' for two consecutive reviews may face a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP). Merit increases are linked to performance ratings and are effective from January 1 each year.

5. Compensation & Benefits

Salaries are reviewed annually. Market benchmarking is conducted every two years. The company offers health insurance, dental, and vision coverage from Day 1 of employment. Employees are eligible for the 401(k) plan with a 4% company match after 3 months of service. Remote work stipend of $50/month is provided for approved remote employees.

6. Termination

Employees wishing to resign must provide at least 2 weeks written notice. The company may terminate employment with cause immediately or without cause with 2 weeks severance. Exit interviews are conducted by HR for all departing employees. All company property must be returned on or before the last working day.
